FRENCH SUPPORT COURSES

1. Description:

Université de Nantes offers exchange students the opportunity to attend French support courses, at the I-FLE (Institute of French as Second Language).

These courses are free-of-charge for exchange students. The request to attend these courses must be made through the online application.

Students have three options:

-French support courses for the 1st semester
-French support courses for the 2nd semester
-French support courses for the entire academic year

The courses take place twice a week, usually from 5:30pm to 7:45pm, during 10 weeks each semester.

Students must take the placement test that will be organized before the beginning of the courses in order to join the appropriate group level, from A1 to C2.

More information about the French support courses will be sent by email at the beginning of each semester to students who made the request to attend them.
